Attorney Aimee N. Rankin Joins the Law Firm of Ira Weiss

PITTSBURGH, January 7, 2009 – The Law Offices of Ira Weiss, one of Pennsylvania's leading municipal, school district and public sector financial law firms, has announced that Attorney Aimee N. Rankin has joined its firm.

Ms. Rankin is a recent graduate of the University of Pittsburgh School of Law where she received her Juris Doctorate degree. She actively participated as Senior Research Editor for the University of Pittsburgh Law Review and was a member of the Editorial Board. Attorney Rankin was admitted to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court earlier this year.

Ms. Rankin previously worked for the law firm of Eddy, DeLuca, Gravina & Townsend as a law clerk while completing her law degree. She graduated magna cum laude from Mount Union College with a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and minors in Legal Studies and Spanish.

About the Law Firm of Ira Weiss

The Pittsburgh-based Law Firm of Ira Weiss is widely acknowledged as one of Pennsylvania's leading municipal firms. For more than three decades, Weiss has advised municipalities and school districts on public sector finance issues such as real estate tax assessment litigation, labor, zoning, construction, legislative enactments and general litigation. The firm and its associates currently serve numerous school districts, including the School District of Pittsburgh. In addition to providing solicitor services for various other local school districts and governments, the firm and its associates also provide delinquent tax collection services for municipalities and school districts throughout Western PA.
